

Sustainable Social Care Conference

20th April 2010

Hallam Conference Centre London

Programme

Morning Chair: Stephen Goulder, Director of Corporate Services and Workforce Development, Social Care Institute for Excellence (SCIE)

10:00am Registration and refreshments

10:30am Welcome and introductions
Stephen Goulder and Catherine Max

10.45am Setting the scene:

Research findings to date

Dr Simon Evans, Senior Research Fellow, Institute for Sustainability Health and Environment, University of West of England (ISHE)

Learning Network Recommendations

Amelia Walker, Head of Centre for Service Transformation, Local Government Information Unit, LGIU

11.45am Refreshments

12:00pm Workshops.
A choice of one of 4 workshops. See following page for full details.

1:00pm Lunch

Afternoon Chair: Catherine Max,
Independent Advisor to SCIE on Sustainable Development

2.00pm Feedback and reflections from workshops

2.30pm Viewpoint and Panel. Total Place: opportunities and risks for sustainable social care

Chair: Tess Gill, Commissioner, Sustainable Development Commission (SDC)

Speaker: Richard Hewitt, Taylor Haig

Panel

1. Andrew Cozens, Strategic Adviser for Children, Adults and Health Services, IDeA
2. Sonia Roschnik, Operational Director, NHS Sustainable Development Unit
3. Lord Richard Best, Chair, Hanover Housing Association; President, Local Government Association; Chair of Housing our Ageing Population Panel for Innovation.

Followed by floor discussion

3.30-3.45pm Closing remarks

In association with:

Funded by:

social care
institute for excellence

12:00pm Workshop information

Each workshop will take one or more of the LGIU recommendations as the starting point with presentations and case studies to inform the discussions and offer perspective which may affirm, develop or challenge. Cross-cutting themes will be service user involvement, climate change and the individual versus the collective in sustainable social care.

Topic	Speakers
Risk, resilience and adaptation to climate change Chair: Gemma Bradshaw, Deputy Head of Centre for Local Sustainability, LGIU	Public mental health and sustainable communities Damian Basher, Public Health Consultant, Winchester and Eastleigh Healthcare NHS Trust Neighbourhood flood response: lessons from community development Martin Tolman, Emergency Planning Manager, Birmingham Resilience
Personalisation and sustainability Chair: Stephen Goulder, Director of Corporate Services and Workforce Development, SCIE	Co-production and sustainability: involving communities in design and delivery Lucie Stephens, Head of Co-production and Core Economy, new economics foundation Time Together, Swansea: sustainable communities, sustainable lives Rick Wilson, Chief Executive, Community Lives Consortium and Cathy Murray, Principal Officer, Learning Disability Services Division, City and County of Swansea
Sustainability, the environment and quality of life Chair: Martin Seymour, Principal Consultant, Healthy Communities, Improvement and Development Agency (IDeA)	Designing for health and wellbeing Richard Cass, Cass Associates, Public Space Commissioner, Commission for Architecture and the Built Environment (CABE) Walking for Health: connecting people and the environment Stella Goddard, Health Programme Manager, Natural England
The Third Sector and sustainability: developing capacity and service user involvement Chair: Nick McAllister, Procurement & Commissioning Executive, Association of Chief Executives of Voluntary Organisations (ACEVO)	Strengthening the social foundations of action on climate change Faye Scott, Senior Policy Advisor, Green Alliance Rising to the challenge of sustainable development Brian Watts, Chief Executive, with Service Users, Equinox

